The Rapid Increase in Immigration from Every Place in the World Into the United States—Increasing Our Population Over Half a Million Yearly.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The report of the chief of bureau of statistics for the month ending July 31, presents some interesting figures on immigration. The number of immigrants arriving in this country in July was 39,080, of whom 29,657 landed at New York. The number for the same month last year was 31,348, a difference of nearly 8,000. The immigration for the seven months ending on the 31st of July of this year was 325,531. The immigration for the seven months ending the 31st of July, 1886, was 221,313.

Thus our increase in population from immigration in favor of the seven months of this year was 104,218, enough people to make a city somewhat greater in size than Columbus, O., or Indianapolis, Ind. In fact, we seem to be getting in enough foreigners every month to populate a city larger than Akron, Springfield, Youngstown, Evansville, Fort Wayne or Terre Haute, while about once in two weeks the arrivals from foreign shores more than duplicate Chillicothe, Hamilton, Portsmouth, Sandusky, Steubenville, Logansport, Richmond or South Bend.

The statistics for July of this year illustrate, as well as the figures for a longer period, the relative sizes of contributions in humanity from foreign countries. In that month there were 18,656 immigrants from Great Britain and Ireland. Of this number England and Wales gave us 7,906, while Ireland gave only 4,061. Time was when Ireland would have done better than that.
It seems a little strange to be getting more "bloody Britishers" than Irish under the spreading protection of the American eagle.

Perhaps some of those who came from England, though, were of Milesian extraction.

Germany comes next to Great Britain in the list, swelling our population 7,999 souls a month. Then comes Sweden and Norway with 5,819 industrious and thrifty candidates for citizenship. Austria-Hungary (including Bohemia) gives us 5,053.

Russia forwards 2,575 people, many of whom are no doubt imbued with the idea that governments are erected to be overthrown by the oppressed. Nihilism has greater justifications in Russia, and more respectability in the estimation of students of affairs, than Socialism has in America.
The next country that comes in four figures is Italy, which sends us, every thirty days, 2,334 organ grinders and banana peddlers.

Kentucky Tobacco Growers.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—A delegation of Kentucky tobacco growers called upon the commissioner of agriculture and protested against the reports of the stationer of the department in regard to the tobacco crop of Kentucky and Indiana. Chairman Glover, of the delegation, stated that the reports of the department were incorrect; that the average of last year's acreage, when the fact is that it will not be much more than 30 or 40 per cent. of last year's acreage. In Indiana the acreage is given as 101 per cent. of last year's, but it will be very much less.

The commissioner and Mr. Dodge, the stationer of the department, defended their reports and stated that they were compiled by county agents upon reports received by sub-agents. These agents and sub-agents were appointed upon the recommendation of members of congress from their respective districts, and their reports have never before been questioned. Relying upon the correctness of these reports in the past the officials of the department had no hesitation in defending the report of the stationer.

Philadelphia's Preparations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Philadelphians are making elaborate preparations to entertain the president. Mrs. Cleveland and the members of the cabinet during a promulgation of the constitution on the 15th, 16th and 17th of next month. It seems to be generally understood that the president intends to be present on that occasion, although nothing definite can be ascertained on the subject while the president remains at Oak View and Col. Tamm is absent.

It is also rumored that the president's party will be entertained at Spring Lake beach on the 14th of September. Spring Lake is the fashionable seaside resort patronized principally by wealthy Philadelphians.
A private letter received from there states that the pretty little village of Spring Lake is turning itself almost upside down in anticipation of the pleasure of entertaining the president and his wife if only for a single day.

The Thistle Getting in Trim.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Thistle's crew continue hard at work getting the yacht into racing trim. The mammoth spinaker boom which, Capt. Barr says, is seventy feet long, was towed out from the storage dock, hauled aboard and scraped down. It is expected that the Thistle will be ready for her first sail in her racing gear in these waters by the end of the week.

Treacherous Knight McGarigle.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—McGarigle is to be expelled from the Knights Templar, it being alleged that when taken from jail by Sheriff Matson he pledged his knightly word he would make no attempt to escape.

A Murderer Suicides.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 23.—Bradford Burrill, who shot Mary Kerrigan Thursday, committed suicide by hanging himself in his cell. He is supposed to have been insane at the time of the shooting and since.

Refused Forever.

retired merchant of great wealth, died Sunday from a stroke of apoplexy.

Death of a Noted Woman.

Fenn Love Davis is dead. She was the first wife of Andrew Jackson Davis, who founded Spiritualism.

A MAN OF NERVE.

Premier Norquay Will Build That Road or Die in the Attempt.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—John Norquay, the giant Scotch-Cree half-breed, prime minister of Manitoba, who has been in Chicago since Thursday, has left for Toronto, from which point he will proceed at once to Winnipeg. Via the Canadian Pacific railway should the signs of a conflict in that quarter not disappear.

Before leaving he said: "Yes, there may be trouble, even to the extent of a conflict of arms." Continuing, Mr. Norquay stated that he has been in St. Paul and Chicago for the purpose of raising a temporary loan on the credit of the provincial government for the purpose of a new road, and not to escape service of the injunction warrant, as was stated in a Winnipeg dispatch. He stated that he would do all he could to prevent trouble, and would even go to Ottawa for that purpose before returning home, if necessary. However, the road undertaken would be completed even at the point of the bayonet. He believed the Federal authorities would resist them, and of course, if such were the case there would be bloodshed.

Still Laying Track.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 23.—The Journal's Winnipeg special says the issue of the temporary injunction has not interfered with the operations of the Red River valley road now being built by the province. The disputed property has been successfully crossed. It is expected that the grading will be entirely finished by Saturday, and track laying will be at once commenced.

Rumor of Bishop Borgess' Successor.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 23.—It is reported in Catholic circles here that the Rev. Joseph M. Quatman, pastor of the church of St.
Ludwig, Cincinnati, has been chosen by the Sacred college of the propaganda at Rome to be Bishop Borgess' successor in this diocese. The rumor has created great interest among the leading Catholic clergymen and laymen in this city. Very few, however, have heard of Father Quatman before; but one Detroit layman, who has been a resident of Cincinnati for years, says he has several times heard Father Quatman's name mentioned in words of commendation as a scholar, and well beloved. Pastor Vicar General Hennaert, when interviewed on the subject, said that he had heard nothing of the appointment, and seemed rather disposed to regard it as a mere rumor.

Electric Storm at Sea.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The steamship Anchora, which arrived Sunday, met a tornado Saturday, 180 miles from Sandy Hook. The wind came on from the northeast, and in a short time there was a terrific sea. The rain came down in such floods that the crew were scarcely able to stand upon deck. The lightning poured in streams of a minute's duration from the clouds to the water, while globes of blue flame played up and down the rigging and danced along the yards and leaped from the masts incessantly. For two hours the wind blew at eighty miles an hour. Neither lookout nor pilot could see beyond the ship's rail, because of the solid sheets of rain.

Catholic Priest in Trouble.

Tiffin, O., Aug. 23.—Some weeks ago serious charges were made against Rev. J.
Christy, pastor of St. Patrick's and Liberty Catholic churches. The matter has been investigated by Bishop Gilmore, of Cleveland, and although it was found that Christy is guilty of some of the charges, it was also proven that much of the trouble originated from personal differences between the pastor and members of the church. It has been decided, therefore, not to depose the priest, but to allow him to resign his charge and be transferred to Medina, O.

Convention of Reading Railway Employees.

TAMMUNA, Pa., Aug. 23.—The convention of employees of the Reading railway to consider various matters in dispute between the men and the company met Sunday.
About 200 were present and all were Knights of Labor. The sessions were secret. The various questions were submitted to committees of conference with the company's officials. The committee on color blind examinations was given power to take final action after conference. The delegates say they anticipate no serious trouble.

Burglar's Booty Discovered.

Xenia, O., Aug. 23.—Two months ago Charles Morris, colored, was acquitted of murdering old Mr. Douthett and wife. Last week he moved to Dayton, and a number of boxes were shipped there. The last one accidentally opened in loading, and disclosed goods belonging to Hon. J. P. Martin. The other boxes probably contained goods, and a vigorous search will be instituted. Morris is now in the Xenia jail.

The President's Genealogical Tree.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 23.—Last week Register Brooker, of Beaver Falls, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, received a letter from Mrs.
Grover Cleveland stating that she was getting up a genealogical tree of the president's family and she thought she had traced some of them into Beaver county and wanted information concerning them. She was referred to Ira Cleveland, a justice of the peace at Freedom, Pa.

CAIRO, Ill., Aug. 23.—A vast assemblage of spectators witnessed the successful launching Saturday of the first of the massive caissons, weighing 300 tons, to be sunk in the Ohio river at this place, in connection with the erection of the Illinois Central railroad bridge. The structure will cost nearly $4,000,000.

Delegates Elected.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—District Assembly 49, Knights of Labor, late last night, elected delegates to the Minneapolis convention. T. P. Quinn, T. B. McGuire, and the rest of the home club men were defeated, according to the account at a late hour this morning, and anti-Powderly men were elected.

Saratoga Races Postponed.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The Saratoga races were postponed on account of rain. All betting and entries are declared off.

Aretic Explorer Dies.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 23.—Alex. Mc-Arthur, of north pole expedition fame, died suddenly. Opium eating was the cause.

LIPSKI'S CONFESSION.

THE JEWISH MURDERER HANGED
IN LONDON TO-DAY.

Irish National League Headquarters Removed to London—Prince Ferdinand Refuses an Unofficial Interview—Gladstonians Disappointed—Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Condemned by all England, criticised by the whole civilized world, Home Secretary Matthews has been under the ban of popular disapproval for some time past. Beginning with the Miss Cass case, in which he was indirectly involved, and extending to the case of Israel Lipski, the Hebrew murderer, which comes under his immediate jurisdiction, Mr. Matthews has been subjected to unfavorable comment from one end of England to the other. His old enemy, the Pall Mall Gazette, has lost no opportunity of giving him a hard rub. In no case have the criticisms and taunts been more vituperative than in this affair of the young Jew, Lipski, whom everyone believed to be innocent.

But a mighty revulsion of feeling has come, and Mr. Matthews will be given a chance to pose as a martyr and object of unjust newspaper revilings. Lipski has confessed to the murder of his neighbor's wife. It has become the all absorbing topic of the newspaper offices, and universal curiosity is aroused as to what the Pall Mall Gazette will do. After giving an entire page to the affair on the strength of revelations made by the Jew's solicitor, and commenting in the sharpest kind of language upon what he considered a flagrant disregard of justice on the part of Mr. Matthews, Mr.
Stead, the editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, will be obliged to make an ample apology to the home secretary if, indeed, any will be accepted. Mr. Stead himself is in bad odor and is looked upon as the sensation-breeder of London.

Lipski, who last week was granted a week's respite by the queen over Mr.
Matthews' refusal to do so, suddenly disappeared of any further leniency in his case, and has confessed that in his attempt at robbery he murdered the woman for whose death he was hanged to-day.

This confession will be of great use to the home secretary and those who were lately clamoring for his resignation are now open-mouthed with astonishment at the unexpected turn affairs have taken. However unfortunate it may be for the already smeared reputation of the Pall Mall Gazette and for the future credence of Lipski's friends, it is a most fortunate occurrence for Mr. Matthews. As for the Jew it cannot matter to him, for he would have received the death penalty in any case. If the Pall Mall Gazette escapes a libel suit it will be lucky.

National League Headquarters Removed.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—It is asserted on good authority that the Irish National League has removed all its documents and papers to London for safety. This appears intensely humorous; a persecuted body moving its place of operations to the seat whence the order for its extermination proceeded, and under the very noses of its persecutors, to concoct plans and issue orders for the execution of them. It is, however, a realization of a threat cast out long ago, that if the league was proclaimed it would continue its work in England, Wales and Scotland.
What is a crime in Ireland is not in the rest of the kingdom, and although proclaimed in Ireland the league is still free to carry on its work outside that much ruled country.
Of course everybody knows that the proclamation of the league was a last act of a fast expiring ministry, and with the exception of a few cases nothing of importance will be done, but it will be of immense interest to the government to obtain possession of the league's papers, and it is a wise provision on the part of the league to protect these valuable pieces of property. However ludicrous it seems London is at present a much safer place for them than Dublin.

Ferdinand Refuses an Interview.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—Prince Ferdinand has refused to accede to the request of the foreign consuls for an unofficial interview. The French consul insists that the Catholic bishop lower the tri-color which he displays. Mm. Bradoloff and Tontoboff have refused to form a ministry.

Discussion Postponed.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—It is rumored that at the request of a number of Nationalists the government has agreed to postpone the discussion in the house of commons of the proclamation of the league until after next Thursday, the day appointed.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Standard commenting on Mr. Chamberlain's speech Sat-
